

Deutsche Internationale Schule Johannesburg

Code of Conduct of the Deutsche Internationale Schule Johannesburg

The aim of the Deutsche Internationale Schule Johannesburg is to provide an education of high standard to all its pupils, within a friendly atmosphere and supported by the willingness to be educated towards humane attitudes and solidarity.

For these reasons, I _____ undertake to abide strictly by these rules of behaviour:

A. Behaviour in society:

- tolerance and respect for the rights, opinions and dignity of others;
- honesty, readiness to assist and politeness in associating with others;
- an attitude of responsibility and commitment towards all interests of the school;
- appreciation of differences inherent in cultures;
- conservation of nature and the environment;
- dependability and self-discipline in daily contacts with others;
- preparedness to accept social responsibility.

B. Behaviour at school and at school activities:

- compulsory attendance of and punctuality for all lessons;
- participation in all school activities;
- correct school uniform and well-groomed appearance both in and outside the DSJ;
- decorum and politeness (also in verbal communication) amongst pupils and towards adults;
- responsibility for cleanliness and order in the school and on the entire school premises.

I realise that in specific circumstances when regulations have been breached, the Principal can take immediate steps in order to safeguard the orderly running of the school. As a matter of course, breaching rules is punishable by the application of educational and/or punitive measures. A breach of the following regulations will, as a rule, result in punishment or, if necessary, immediate expulsion from school:

- possessing, taking, or providing illegal drugs on the school premises or at school activities;
- bringing weapons or dangerous objects of any kind to school;
- theft or deliberate destruction of another person's property;
- using or threatening violence of any kind (physical or psychological) against others.
